"Your work was inspiring and musically rewarding for both the orchestra and the audience..."

John Williams, Laureate Conductor, Boston Pops Orchestra – August 2000

"We always expect that when we bring MCV with us we'll bring the house down."

"Certainly in my 25 years in this profession, they are unique...the musical excellence with which a group of people who do this avocationally can perform is really extraordinary. They're inspiring to us, they're inspiring to the audience, and they project a very, very positive image of America through their music."

Keith Lockhart, Conductor, Boston Pops Orchestra – January 2006
